Broward County Board of County Commissioners
115 S. Andrews Avenue
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida 33301

Dear Broward County Board of County Commissioners:

We write to extend our most sincere congratulations to Broward County on celebrating its 100th anniversary. It is truly an honor to represent such a diverse and unique county in the United States Congress, whose transformation and growth is very much a product of the industrial age.

In the last century, Broward has become home to over 1.8 million people, where tens of thousands reside during the winter months, and millions more come to vacation. While the sun, sand, and sea have been here for millennia, the roads, railroads, and seaport are new additions that have transformed the area's landscape.

Once again, congratulations! We are excited to celebrate this momentous occasion and to highlight all that the "Sunshine State" has to offer to our nation and world.

Sincerely,

Bill Nelson
